Redcaps Corner Infinity Slow Grow League 2015

Inspired and sampled from the WARGAMESTORE

Introduction

Welcome to the rules pack for the Redcaps Corner Infinity Slow grow League 2015! This league is intended to be an introduction to Infinity for new players (and a re-introduction for old players!) and comes with very few special rules. What rules there are, are mostly in reference to points levels and scenarios to be played on given weeks. For new players, we'll learn the game as we go along – don't worry if the scenarios or rules in the rules pack don't make sense right now, and if you have any questions please feel free to get in touch with Josh (details later) and ask!

Objectives

The objective of the slow-grow league is twofold:

- 1) To win! You score league points for each game that you play. You obviously score more if you win. See later.
- 2) To grow your army from a small, simple (and easy to learn) force into a fully-fledged Infinity army.

Army Selection

At the start of the League, each player chooses a single faction and must play that faction for the duration of the campaign.

All lists must be selected from the official Infinity army lists with no mercenaries unless they are specifically part of your force selection chart.

Sectorial armies may be chosen, however Fire Team rules will not be used until later in the league.

Your lists and the models they contain do NOT have to contain the same models week to week and can be completely different – in Infinity, what works in one scenarios might cripple you in another if you try to keep exactly the same army!

Scenarios

All scenarios can be found in the ITS 2015 pack here:

Pairing and Scoring

Each week, players will be allowed to play any person up to twice in any given week so to prevent people from winning simply by playing the same person.

Each game you win awards 2 league points, each game you lose or draw awards 1 league point. In-game victory point totals will be used as a tiebreaker.

You will be awarded one point each week as long as you play at least one game on Wednesday.

I will put up a post each Wednesday on the Infinity Google group in which you must say who you fought, and who won so that I may allocate points accordingly.

You are allowed to play games on other days of the week, not just on Wednesdays, but they must be in the store to count.

Prize Support:

There will be three sections for which people may be rewarded:

1. Eyes on the prize: Gaining the most points throughout the league, that is, whoever gets first place by the end of week 5 will be awarded a third of the prize pool
2. Artist: The best painted army by the end of week 5 will be rewarded a third of the prize pool. Pictures/applications for best painted army will only be on Wednesdays. Do not send me pictures of your army, they will not count and I will be taking pictures myself for the judges to determine.

3. Owen Montgomery Sportsmanship award: The best sportsman, all the people in the league will be polled on who they thought was the most sportsmanlike and/or the most fun to play against. The winner will be awarded a third of the prize pool.
